

Hello Spring! (I'm being a positive thinker!)

"Weather" it's snowing or sunny while you're reading this a few spring announcements are in order:

MIDWAY FARMERS MARKET

Coming this year, for the first time, will be the opportunity to sell your homegrown vegetables, and organic eggs, along with freshly baked breads and jams! Every Saturday, starting June 1st, on the southwest corner of Town Square, there will be a Farmers Market from 10 AM to 2:00. If you'd like to participate, email Chris at RustlingAspenFarm@gmail.com. There are a few vendor spots still available. Thank you to Midway Citizens Chris Pyper and Athena Koumarela for bringing this to fruition!

NEIGHBORHOOD GARDEN

Once again, Jerry Owens is offering some of his acreage to those who would like to have a garden, but don't have the space at their own homes. This is a great way to get to know some neighbors, grow your own produce and maybe even sell it at the Farmers Market! Call Jerry for more information 801-604-2522.

UTAH ASSOCIATION OF PUBLIC TREASURES

Midway's Treasurer, Jennifer Sweat, is the new President of the Utah Association of Public Treasurers. Jennifer has been an amazing part of the Midway City team for 7 years and is now lending her expertise to this organization of over 100 treasurers. Their first meeting of the year was held 2 weeks ago in St. George where she kicked off the 2020 year with the theme of "Vision with Action can change the world". Get it...the year 20-20...the theme is Vision. Jennifer is as creative as she is smart, and capable and we're proud to share her with this critically important organization.

ELECTIONS

Mayor Potter wrote a terrific article in the last issue of The Wave, encouraging folks to get involved in their community. One of those ways is to run for office. In Midway, the election will be for three City Council seats. If you'd like to participate in the decisions facing your community, declare your candidacy between Monday June 3 at 8:00 AM, and Friday June 7 at 5:00 PM. You need to file in person at the office of the City Recorder, Brad Wilson, in the City Offices 75 North 100 West.
